

Guidance Announcements (4/17/12)

Current College Visit Schedule

University of Alabama-Huntsville – September 6 (Classroom Visit)

University of Louisville – September 13 (Classroom Visit -- Auditorium)

Xavier University – September 16 (Classroom Visit -- Auditorium)

Indiana Wesleyan University – September 19 (Classroom Visit)

Michael’s College of Hair Design – September 21 (Classroom Visit)

University of Kentucky – September 22 (Classroom Visit – Auditorium)

Morehead State University – September 26 (Classroom Visit)

Western Kentucky University – October 3 (Classroom Visit)

University of Louisville Speed School for Engineering – October 6 (Classroom Visit)

Georgetown College – October 11 (Classroom Visit)

College of Mount Saint Joseph – October 13 (Classroom Visit)

Cincinnati State College – October 14 (Classroom Visit)

Northern Kentucky University – October 17 (Classroom Visit – Auditorium)

University of Kentucky School of Engineering – October 18 (Classroom Visit)

Indiana Univ.-Purdue Univ. at Indianapolis (IUPUI) – October 20 (Classroom Visit)

Transylvania University – October 24 (Classroom Visit)

Thomas More College – October 26 (Classroom Visit)

Otterbein College – November 3 (Classroom Visit)

Berea College – November 17 (Classroom Visit)

United States Naval Academy – November 21 (Classroom and Lunch Visit)

Northern Kentucky University Honors Program – December 5 (Classroom Visit)

Morehead State University – January 23 (Classroom Visit)

Eastern Kentucky University – January 30 (Classroom and Lunch Visit)

Western Kentucky University – January 31 (Classroom Visit)

University of Kentucky – March 28 (Classroom Visit)

Announcements

Washington University in St. Louis is hosting various Special Visit Days throughout Summer 2012 with various themes. Days include Academic Exploration Days, Art & Architecture Day, Business Day, Engineering Day, Liberal Arts Day, Pre-Medicine Day, and Scholar Athlete Day. If interested, go to <http://visit.wustl.edu> for dates and registration information.

Bob McDermott from KHEAA will be here for an information session for college-bound Seniors on April 24 during 2nd block in the Auditorium. Students interested can sign up in the Guidance Office.

There will be an informational meeting for parents of students with disabilities on Tuesday, April 17th at 630PM in the Grant County High School Media Center. Information will be presented on Guardianship and Office of Vocational Rehabilitation services as well as from New Perceptions, Redwood, and Active Day. To RSVP, contact Michelle Kruse at michelle.kruse@grant.kyschools.us or 859.466.9081.

St. Elizabeth Hospice is sponsoring the "Strides for STARS Walk/Run" on Saturday, April 28 in Crestview Hills. The event supports grief counseling programs sponsored by St. Elizabeth. Students and family/friends are encouraged to walk in memory of/in honor of loved ones. For more information, visit www.starsforchildren.com.

The University of Cincinnati is advertising Summer Camps for their DAAP (Design, Art, Architecture, and Planning) Program. For more information, visit www.daap.uc.edu/summer\_camp.

Ohio University in Athens, Ohio is offering their Summer High School Honors Academy from July 15 to August 11 at their campus. Students can enroll in two to three courses, live in a residence hall, and explore career/major options. Student must be rising sophomores, juniors, or seniors with a minimum 3.25 GPA. For more information, visit www.ohio.edu/honorsacademy.

The Point/ARC of Northern Kentucky will be holding two sessions for their annual Summer Academy. "The main objective of the Summer Academy is to increase independent living skills for students ages 16-21. Students ages 16-21 who have been diagnosed with an intellectual developmental disability are eligible for this program." Session 1 takes place from June 18 to July 11, while Session 2 is from July 16 to August 8. Both sessions are from 9AM-3PM; cost is $450.00 per session. Transportation is not provided. For more details, contact Jennifer Wells-McCullough at 859.491.9191 x22 or email at jwellsmccullough@thepointarc.org.

The Office of Recruitment at the Center for Student Involvement at Murray State University will be hosting the Murray Leadership Summit for students of color who are high school juniors on Saturday, April 28, 2012. Session workshop topics will include "Marketing You," "College Readiness," and "Social Media and How it Effects (sic) You." To register, visit www.murraystate.edu/summit -- there is a $10 fee for registration, meals, transportation, and accommodations.

The Greater Cincinnati Bricklayers, Southern Ohio Regional Training Center, Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee will be accepting applications between 9AM-12Noon at the Allied Construction Industries Office, Cincinnati, Ohio, for their apprenticeship program. Applicants must be at least 18, have a diploma/GED, valid driver's license, be able to perform the tasks of the trade, and pass a pre-admission drug exam. For more information, contact Christie Farrow, Apprentice Coordinator, at 513.221.8020.

The InterAlliance of Greater Cincinnati is offering their 2012 IT Careers Camp at either UC, Miami, or NKU this summer – camps occur during the month of July. Stay in residence halls and explore various IT programs. For more information, go to www.interalliance.org.

Northern Kentucky University's College of Health Professions and St. Elizabeth Healthcare is offering their "Pathways to Nursing Summer Nurse Camp" from June 25-28, 2012. Students must be rising sophomores, juniors, or seniors – maximum of 30 students can participated, and applications are accepted on a first come, first served basis. Applications are available in the Guidance Office or by visiting <http://healthprofessions.nku.edu/departments/nursing/networkresearchoutreach/pathways.html>.

Kentucky Wesleyan College in Owensboro is hosting a special event for admitted students on Saturday, April 28 at KWC. Students will priority register for classes, get their student ID, set up email, collect mailbox keys and laundry cards, and more. To register, go to www.kwc.edu/admittedstudentday.

Xavier University is hosting their 12th Annual Cincinnati Area Spring College Fair on Sunday, April 29th from 12-2PM at the Cintas Center on Xavier's Campus. Over 150 colleges and universities will be in attendance. For information or directions, visit www.Xavier.edu/collegefair or call 877.982.3648 or 513.745.3301.

Northern Kentucky University is proud to announce their Third Annual Multicultural Student Leadership Conference. This conference is designed for African-American, Latino/Hispanic, and Native American high school juniors. The conference will be held on May 18-19, 2012. Students must rank in the top 1/3 of the class or have a minimum 3.0 GPA or have exceptional leadership skills with a 2.5GPA. If interested, see Guidance.

Thomas More College is offering Theatreworks Summer Camp for students ages 7-15 on June 11-15, 2012 at TMC. Students will learn pantomime, puppet/mask creation, improvisation, movement, script work, games, and song/dance. Cost is $140 for the week – if interested, forms are available in Guidance.

The Mechanical Contractors Association of Cincinnati is advertising Apprenticeship Applications for Plumbing, Pipe Fitting, and Mechanical Equipment Service programs. Credits toward an associate's degree can be earned during the program. For more information, visit www.jatc392.com.

Children's Hospital Medical Center is advertising summer internship programs for students interested in pursuing a medical career. Paid internships last from June 13-August 8. All applicants must be graduating in 2012. If interested, visit www.cincinnatichildrens.org/education/research/high-school/summer-internship.

Boston University in Boston, MA is offering four opportunities for high school students:

- High School Honors – six week program earning up to 8 credits (rising Juniors and Seniors)
- Research Internship in Science and Engineering – six week program of research (rising Seniors)
- Summer Challenge – two week program of seminars (rising Sophomores, Juniors, or Seniors)
- Summer Preview – one week program (rising Freshmen or Sophomores)

For more information, visit bu.edu/summer/highschool.

Transylvania University in Lexington is hosting various academic summer camps for middle and high school students this summer. Topics include: College Preparation, Introduction to Java Programming, Advanced Computer Camp Linux and Security, and Robotics Day Camp (MS students only). Application deadline is May 1 – for more information or to register online, go to www.transy.edu/visitors/academic\_camps.htm or call Charlotte Taraba at 859.233.8228.

Gateway Community and Technical College will be offering an Information Session and Financial Aid Workshop at 3PM on the following dates: 2/29, 3/28, 4/25, and 5/23. Learn about admissions, financial aid, admissions programs, etc. The event will be held at the Boone Campus – Center for Advanced Manufacturing in Florence. For more information, contact Gateway CTC at 441-4500.

Emory University is hosting their 2012 Emory Pre-College Program for rising juniors and seniors. Students may enroll in coursework while there – residential program runs from July 1-August 11, 2012. For more information, go to www.precollege.emory.edu.

The University of Pikeville's Kentucky College of Osteopathic Medicine (KYCOM) is offering the 2012 Professional Education Preparation Program (PEPP) from June 2-15, 2012. Students interest in a career in medicine should consider participating in the program. Rising Juniors and Seniors are encouraged to apply for the program that enrolls approximately 50 students each summer. Activities include lectures, anatomical laboratory and pro-sections, volunteer work, and participation in social and cultural events. For more information, contact Ronnie Collins, Director for Admissions for KYCOM, at 606.218.5409 or ronniecollins@upike.edu.

Morehead State University is offering their Summer Arts Academy for students this summer interested in music, theatre, dance, art & design, and creative writing. This year's SAA will be from June 10-16, 2012 on the campus of Morehead State. For more information, see Guidance or visit www.moreheadstate.edu/music/saa.

THE FAFSA IS NOW AVAILABLE!!!! GO TO WWW.FAFSA.ED.GOV TO FILL OUT – FOR MORE DETAILS, VISIT GUIDANCE!

The University of Kentucky's College of Design is hosting an intensive two-week program this summer to rising juniors and seniors that are interested in architecture and interior design. If interested, visit www.uky.edu/design/scdp.

The University of Dayton is hosting their Women in Engineering Summer Camp from July 8-13. If interested, visit <http://go.udayton.edu/wie>.

Interested in participating in athletics in college? If so, check out the NCAA Clearinghouse and NAIA websites to find out requirements, eligibility standards, etc. – see www.eligibilitycenter.org for the NCAA or www.playnaia.org for the NAIA.

Ohio University is hosting their 2012 Ohio University Summer Honors Academy from June 18-July 14, 2012. Students who participate get to live on campus, take introductory-level courses, and learn about possible careers. Freshman through Juniors who have a 3.25 GPA minimum are encouraged to apply. For more information, visit www.ohio.edu/honorsacademy or contact Patricia Davidson at 740.593.1767 or Davidson@ohio.edu.

The University of Kentucky is looking for qualified students who are interested in working as a student athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky. Students with an interest in the medical field (athletic training, PT, pre-med, nursing, etc.) are encouraged to apply. Students must have a minimum 2.5 GPA and are looking to attend UK. Scholarships are available if a student completes one year in the program and are based on student performance in the training room and the classroom. If interested, contact Gabe Amponsah, Senior Athletic Trainer, at 859.257.6521 or gamponsah@uky.edu.

Looking for information on ACT preparation? Go to the ACT Online Prep program at www.act.org/onlineprep -- students will have access to sample tests, diagnostic results, and personalized study skills. Price is $19.95.

Cornell University is offering their Summer College programs for High School Students. Experience life at an Ivy League University, earn three to six college credits, and study in a variety of fields. Three and six-week programs are available between June 23 and August 7. For more details, visit www.summercollege.cornell.edu or call 607.255.6203.

Washington University in St. Louis is hosting two summer programs for high school students after their Sophomore or Junior years of school. The Summer Scholars Program is 5 weeks and allows students to enroll in two courses for credit. The Summer Institute is 3 weeks and allows a student to study in-depth in one of the following areas: writing, pre-medicine, or photojournalism. If interested, go to www.summerexperiences.wustl.edu, email at summerexperiences@wustl.edu, or call 866.209.0691.

The University of Louisville is offering Information sessions regarding ULtra@JCTC on the following dates (all dates are 6-7PM): November 15, January 17, February 21, March 27, April 17, and May 16. Sessions are designed for students who want to attend UofL but will start at Jefferson Community and Technical College. All sessions are on the 9th floor of the Jefferson Educational Center, 200 West Broadway, Louisville. For more information, see www.louisville.edu/ultra.

The American Line Builders Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee (ALBAT Program) is accepting applications for apprentice programs for students interested in being a lineman, cable technician, traffic signal technician, transmission technician, and more. Information is available in the Guidance Office if interested.

Muskingum University is offering their PLUS program, which provides students at Muskingum with learning disabilities and/or ADHD with a comprehensive academic support service. For details, call the admissions office at 800.752.6082.

The Phillips Academy, the oldest boarding school in the United States, is offering their Phillips Academy Summer Program, which allows students to spend five weeks in Andover, MA experiencing high academics. Applications are based on rolling admissions – see Guidance for brochures or visit www.andover.edu/summer to download the full application.

The National Youth Leadership Forum on Medicine is looking for students to attend their summer conference. Students in the 9th through 12th grades are eligible but must be nominated for the opportunity. There is a cost associated with this event. For more details, see the flyer in Guidance.

Eastern Kentucky University is offering their “First Step to College Success” program, which helps first year students with lower ACT scores in reading, writing, and math gain the remediation needed to help be successful at EKU. The program will run from June 25 to August 3. If you have questions, visit www.developmentaleducation.eku.edu or call Kathy Williams, Director, at 859.622.2306.

“Have you ever considered being a Fire Fighter? Think you might like being an EMT?” Fire Explorer programs are available at the Burlington, Hebron, Union, and Petersburg (forthcoming) FDs. For more information, go to www.nkyfa.com and follow the links for Junior Firefighter/Fire Explorer Programs.

Information is available in Guidance for students who would like to attend a LeadAmerica Conference in Washington DC. Students could earn up to two college credits as a part of this program. For more information, see Guidance.